WOMAN'S CLUB

Thanks All Those Who Assisted in Making the Convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs a Success.

The Mason County Woman's Club wishes through these columns, to express its appreciation of the hospitality extended to the State Federation of Women's Clubs of Kentucky, by the citizens of Maysville.

Also to express its appreciation of, and gratitude for all those efforts, and they were many, put forth by the residents of Maysville, towards the comfort and pleasure of the delegates and guests. The Woman's Club feels that the convention is well over; having been, so far as the hospitality of the city is concerned, as well as in other ways, a brilliant success, and wishes to extend its thanks to all public spirited citizens who helped to make it so. Once more Maysville has been honored as having reached the high water mark of good old fashioned, whole souled, hearty hospitality in true Kentucky fashion.

The Woman's Club wishes especially to congratulate the Chamber of Commerce and its Special Events Committee, for the beautiful and graceful and competent way in which their part of the program was carried out, and to thank them for the fact that representative bodies of men of Maysville were assisting the women of Maysville in the hospitality extended the visitors added much to the pleasure, and to the reputation for old fashioned civility for which the state is noted.

The Club wishes to express its appreciation of and gratitude for the use of the First Presbyterian Church, as a place of meetings, also to Mr. and Mrs. Barbour for their constant care and helpfulness which added very largely in the success of the convention.

Also it wishes to express its appreciation of the kind offer of the Third Street M. E. Church, for the use of Federation as committee rooms. The club wishes to thank Judge and Mrs. A. M. J. Cochran and Mrs. Duke for the hospitality extended to the Club reception to the Federation.

The Women's Club wishes to express its appreciation and the appreciation of the Federation to the Knights Templar for the charming hospitality expressed in the loan of the Masonic Temple, and in all those courtesies extended so gracefully to the women of the Federation and the Women's Club, on the occasion of the civic dinner. They added greatly to the pleasure of the guests; made possible the giving of the civic dinner, and by their presence and graceful exercise of the functions of hosts, made the women of Kentucky realize that the days of chivalry were not a dream of the past, but a living reality of today—in Maysville.

The Women's Club has great felicity in extending its thanks to Miss Ellen Barbour, for her beautiful music which gave great pleasure to all those present.

The Club wishes, together with the train committee, to thank all the friends who loaned automobiles for the carrying of guests from the trains to their abiding places, also to thank the following gentlemen: Messrs. James H. Hall, C. S. Kirk, C. M. Jones, C. E. Dietrich, Dr. George Devine, W. Houston Hall, O. L. Bartlett, Sherman Arn, Nace Brady, Thomas H. Gray, Roy Cochran, and Mayor J. Wesley Lee, who so courteously assisted the train committee in the arduous labor of getting all these ladies so comfortably delivered to their abiding places.

The Club with the Lodging Committee wish to thank all hostesses, who gave the guests of the Federation opportunity to become acquainted with the homes of Maysville.

The Maysville Street Railway Company is especially asked to accept the thanks of the Club, for the free service extended the guests by them.

The Health League and Miss Casey are once more the recipients of the Clubs appreciation and gratitude, as well as that of many many delegates who availed themselves of the opportunity to rest there, for little intervals during the convention.

The Woman's Club wishes to express its appreciation of and thanks for the telephone installed in the First Presbyterian Church, by the Maysville Telephone Company, free of charge for the use of the convention, and also to the Acollon Company of Cincinnati and Mr. Tucker, for the loan of the beautiful Weber Grand piano used by the artists for the entertainment of the convention.

The Woman's Club wishes to thank Fireman Greenlee and Policeman Tolle for their watchfulness and protection during the civic dinner.

The Club wishes to express its appreciation of the donation and kindly co-operation of the Washington Club, also the Chamber of Commerce and the merchants, who made donations towards the financing of the entertainment of the convention.

To all those who so kindly extended the use of their auto's for the entertainment of our guests on the sight-seeing trip, the Club expresses its most cordial thanks and appreciation.

And lastly to the Settlement Club and the young women and girls who served so beautifully and so gracefully and efficiently, at trains and as pages in the convention—and to all others who had their share in making the convention a success: the Woman's Club extends its congratulations and gratitude. Signed: THE MASON COUNTY WOMAN'S CLUB.

THE LARGEST AUDIENCE

Four More Conversations in Yeuell Meeting Friday Night.

The largest audience for the week except Sunday was present in the Yeuell meetings last night. The evangelist spoke at length on the necessity of obedience and of the general tendency to forget or neglect to do the things which one recognizes at times to be his duty.

There were four responses to the invitation. Others were visibly under conviction. The sermon was followed by a moving picture view of Canada which one sees while traveling over the Canadian Pacific line.

The Quo Vadis lecture which is given tonight will be illustrated by over two hundred colored pictures. The Sunday morning services will be in the church. But at night on Sunday the meetings resume in the Growers.
